Become Plant Expert

Capable and thoughtful, Chubs grew up on a farm with his family and is obsessed with plants of every kind. Now, Chubs owns a greenhouse, has a thriving plant collection, and leads the Schmoobville Garden Club. Chubs rescued a technologically advanced plantbot, Lopster, from an abandoned factory. Goosebob

Classification:

Male Blob

Goal:

Make a Friend

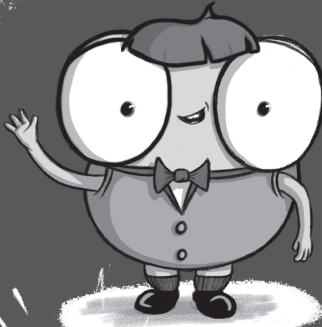

A wannabe tough guy with a soft side, Goosebob loves working out, building drones, and listening to loud music. Goosebob grew up in a hover bike gang and harbors a secret obsession with sprinkle cakes. To those who don't know him, he is quiet, reserved, and typically in a bad mood.

Weakness: A loner who fears rejection, Goosebob wears an armor of cynicism to avoid seeming weak, but it prevents him from making friends.

Demeanor: Intimidating and aloof; stoic

Favorites: Sprinkle cakes, Drak chips, protein

Wilby Potatoes

Weakness: Reckless overconfidence leads him to jump into situations without considering the consequences.

Demeanor: Charismatic, impulsive, eager, awkward

Favorites: Zlorbee, candy, popsicles

Loves mystery board games, noir jazz, and is working on her first book, The Blobs Files: Secrets They Tried to Hide. She plans to train the next generation of Blob investigators.
