ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Tammy Trent is a speaker, author, recording artist, and TV Host. After the tragic loss of her husband in 2001, Tammy began sharing her powerful story of grief, healing, and hope worldwide—through music and speaking—to encourage others that God is present and working, even in pain. She is the author of Learning to Breathe Again and Beyond the Sorrow.

WHERE ARE YOU NOW, GOD?

Discovering the Unshakable Truth That You're Never Alone

TAMMY TRENT

When life falls apart and disappointments shake your faith, where is God? Where is His voice when silence feels louder than answers? Tammy Trent offers raw honesty, biblical depth, and practical tools to help you ask the hard questions, name hidden wounds, and stay rooted in the truth that you are never alone—even when everything in you wants to quit.

Pain has a way of silencing everything except the questions: Where is God right now—when I need Him most? Doesn't He see how much I'm hurting? Was He ever with me at all?

Writing from her own experiences of deep loss, Tammy Trent helps us uncover the places in our lives that threaten to drown out God's truth. In this hope-filled journey toward healing, she brings us face-to-face with our doubts and reveals, through Scripture, story, and humor, how God uses our questions to draw us closer to Him.

With the warmth and authenticity of a trusted friend, Tammy walks with us as we reclaim our true identity in Christ during the times we feel most unsure of who we are and who God is. She's discovered that God is not a bystander to our pain. He sees us and is with us, even in our darkest seasons. This is not a book about fixing everything. It's about finding God in the middle of it all.

YOUR LIFE SIGNATURE

Three Simple Questions to Find Your Purpose and Love Your Life
BENJAMIN WINDLE

A powerful framework for discovering what no algorithm can replicate: the unique purpose God wove into you.

We live at the pinnacle of technology, knowledge, and opportunity, yet we've never felt more lost. Our ache for a life that means something grows louder by the day. Beneath it all is a question we can no longer ignore: What does it mean to be human now?

Benjamin Windle confronts this crisis head-on and offers a revolutionary answer: purpose isn't something you find, it's something already in you. Using three simple yet profound questions about your passion, your gift, and your burden, Benjamin helps you realize the contribution only you can make. As you identify the place where your deepest fulfillment and the world's greatest need meet, you will:

- Finally know what you were put on this earth to do.
- Break free from comparing yourself to others.
- Stop feeling behind and start living on purpose.

Including discussion questions, a self-assessment tool, and a companion digital workbook, Your Life Signature provides a pathway to greater joy. Because you don't chase your life's purpose. You uncover it.

LOVED BY GOD KATHRYN JOY MACDOWALL

Written as a poetic affirmation rooted in the psalms, this Hillsong picture book teaches children from infancy through early readers that God intentionally made them and faithfully loves them.

Drawing on Psalm 17, Psalm 119, and Psalm 139, Loved by God gently speaks truth over young hearts. Elegant hand-lettering, nurturing language, and engaging illustrations show children that God uniquely created them and lovingly guides them. THE HEART WHO NEEDED A FRIEND

A Story About Finding Strength in Friendship

BETH GUCKENBERGER

Why do we need friends? In this sixth book of the StrongHeart Stories series for ages 4-8, Beth Guckenberger highlights how God's gift of friendships brings security, honesty, and cheer.

When a determined little heart sets out to build a snowman by herself, loneliness and discouragement chill her excitement. Through unexpected friendships, she discovers that God uses community to warm us. Grounded in Ecclesiastes 4:9-10, this heartwarming picture book helps young readers realize the joy and encouragement we find in friendship.

Like every book in the StrongHeart Stories series, The Heart Who Needed a Friend equips children with healthy, loving ways to deal with big feelings. This illustrated story series gives parents the guidance and biblical tools to prepare children for spiritual battles in developmentally appropriate ways—through Scripture, worship, rest, prayer, confession, and community.

FORGIVE ME IF I WAS RUDE

The Art of Having Complicated, Faith-Based Conversations
EMANUEL LAMBERT

This modern guide to hard conversations equips Christians with emotional intelligence and a conversational framework for telling the truth without losing the person.

Many Christians feel unprepared in what to say and how to say it when it comes to online and in-person discussions about morality, sexuality, and truth itself. Forgive Me If I Was Rude offers a clear, compassionate framework for engaging in those conversations effectively. Bridging the gap between intellect and empathy, this highly applicable book helps us:

- Gain confidence to discuss hard topics we once avoided.
- Learn biblically-based answers to the hardest faith questions that we wrestle with ourselves.
- Understand how to remain physically and emotionally grounded when conversations turn tense.

Each chapter in Forgive Me If I Was Rude ends with “Curious Conversations”: a sample dialogue between a believer and a skeptic, complete with objections, rebuttals, and modeled responses. Boldness and grace work together when our goal is not to win arguments but to win hearts.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Pastor Jerome Gay Jr. is the founding pastor of Vision Church in the inner city of Raleigh, North Carolina. He is the author of several books, including Church Hurt, Talking to Your Children About Race, The Whitewashing of Christianity, and Renewal. Pastor Jerome and his wife, Crystal, have two children.

HOW TO SPEAK MAN

Discovering the Respect Languages Men Need

JEROME GAY, JR.

Men don't lack feelings. They lack a safe place to express them. In a culture obsessed with "high-value men" and "alpha status," men often let their emotions go unprocessed. What looks like drive is desperation, leading to workaholism, infidelity, and addiction.

In How to Speak Man, Pastor Jerome Gay writes to men who are in a romantic relationship, or want to be, as well as to women who want to encourage their partner to be vulnerable. At the heart of the book is a practical framework that explains how men process emotions and what it looks like to open up without feeling weak. How to Speak Man helps men:

- Identify and articulate emotions they've never been given language for
- Understand why respect, rather than pressure, is the key to emotional openness
- Communicate honestly without shutting down or exploding
- Implement ways to create healthy environments where vulnerability can thrive

This straightforward call to godliness and true masculinity challenges men to stop performing and start healing—because men don't need to "man up" to be the men God created them to be. They need the courage to be known, the strength to be vulnerable, and the security of knowing who they are in Christ.

ART OF THE MARGINS

Unearthing Your Creativity
in Obscurity

D.J. WILLIAMS

A countercultural manifesto for creatives weary of chasing applause, this book calls us back to creating not for platform or praise but to restore beauty where it's been fractured, speak truth where it's been blurred, and rekindle hope in a restless, untamed wild.

The moment we exchange our soul's call to create for our culture's demand to be seen, joy gives way to exhaustion. We stop chasing rhythms and melodies, words and ideas, light and color. We're too busy checking the charts, the clicks, the views, the endorsements. But true creativity is not sustained by visibility. It is forged on our knees before our Creator.

Art of the Margins calls creatives to embrace obscurity as the sacred birthplace of purpose. Across thirty cinematic chapters, D.J. Williams blends personal story, biblical depth, and cultural insight to reframe hidden seasons as holy ground. This story-driven manifesto propels us to create from conviction, live from calling, and have lasting influence—even from the unseen.

Creativity doesn't only belong in galleries, studios, and pulpits. It belongs in the forgotten places around us. It belongs in the margins.

THE MARGINS

A Creative Journal

D.J. WILLIAMS

More than a journal, this guided creative companion deepens the journey of Art of the Margins, helping creatives turn reflection into formation, explore calling, and encounter Presence in the hidden places where our most meaningful work is forged.

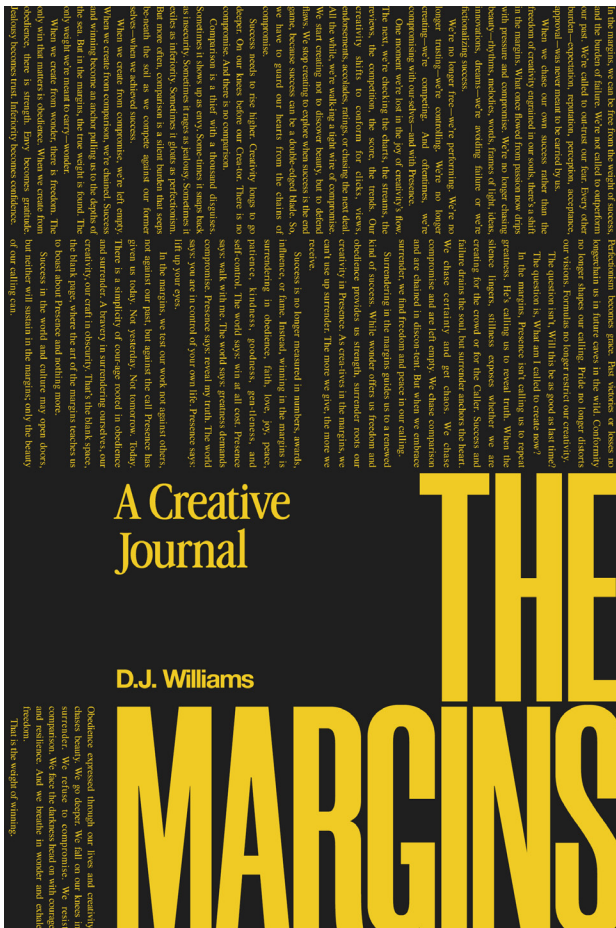

Whether we're leaders, creatives, or both, we long for the spotlight. But what if our truer calling is unearthed in wilderness seasons—where roots grow deep and unseen cultivation prepares us for lasting impact?

In this companion journal to Art of the Margins, storyteller and creative catalyst D.J. Williams invites readers to move from inspiration into richer creativity. Through chapter-based prompts, guided reflection, and Scripture meditations, creatives wrestle with risk, rekindle curiosity, and rediscover wonder—pursuing calling with less comparison and more conviction, less striving and more surrender.

A lay-flat binding, ribbon marker, and quality writing paper make this an ideal gift for creatives ready to move past burnout into joy so they can find satisfaction not in applause but in the margins.

AMADO

FRANCIS CHAN

El autor de mayor ventas y pastor Francis Chan explica cómo permanecer en el amor de Dios nos conduce a una vida de servicio, obediencia y adoración a Dios.

A pesar de haber pastoreado durante décadas y alcanzado a miles de personas a través de sus libros y predicaciones, Francis luchaba con una inseguridad profundamente arraigada. Entendía sobre el amor de Dios en teoría, pero le costaba experimentarlo de manera real. Esto lo llevó a vivir una vida muy lejos de la vida plena y llena de paz para la cual Dios nos salvó.

Francis oró fervientemente para que Dios interviniera, y se rodeó de una comunidad de amigos y familiares que lo acompañaron en esa búsqueda. El resultado fue una revelación sobre la profundidad del amor de Dios. Esto produjo libertad y un deleite en Dios que sigue creciendo.

Al compartir con otros, se dio cuenta de que muchos en la iglesia cargan con la misma inseguridad que Dios anhela transformar.

- En Amado, Francis Chan ofrece una perspectiva bíblica sobre:
- Cómo nuestra inquietud y esfuerzo constante son síntomas de nuestra incredulidad en el amor de Dios
- Las estrategias de Satanás para mantenernos atrapados en la duda y la inseguridad
- Descubrir y permanecer en nuestra identidad como hijos amados de Dios
- Cómo el amor de Dios se desborda en una vida de obediencia radical y gozo

DOMINION

FALL OF THE HOUSE OF SAUL (VOLUME 1)

DR. BARRON BELL, DANIEL HANCOCK, CHRISTOPHER HUNT

This award-winning sci-fi graphic novel series reimagines the biblical story of King Saul as a sweeping interstellar saga of prophecy, power, and war.

Once favored by his Deity and feared by his enemies, King Saul now finds his authority—and his mind—slipping away. Political tension and spiritual unrest spread across the galaxy as the royal family fractures under the weight of ambition, pride, and a devastating prophecy. With a son seeking validation and a daughter yearning for purpose, the queen works in quiet desperation to hold the kingdom together as enemies gather at its borders.

Featuring behind-the-scenes art, the first book in the award-winning DOMINION saga introduces readers of all ages to a universe where courage is tested at a cosmic scale. As war looms and divine favor seems uncertain, the sparks of conflict ignite—and threaten to change the destiny of DOMINION forever.

DOMINION
 FALL OF THE HOUSE OF SAUL (VOLUME 2)

DR. BARRON BELL, DANIEL HANCOCK, CHRISTOPHER HUNT

This award-winning sci-fi graphic novel series reimagines the biblical story of King Saul as a sweeping interstellar saga of prophecy, power, and war.

Once favored by his Deity and feared by his enemies, King Saul now finds his authority—and his mind—slipping away. Political tension and spiritual unrest spread across the galaxy while the royal family fractures under the weight of ambition, pride, and a devastating prophecy.

In this second volume in the fast-paced DOMINION series, High Priest Samuel’s prophecy of judgment has propelled King Saul into paranoia, bouts of rage, and debilitating nightmares. While Prince Jonathan defies Saul to secure a perilous victory, the queen shoulders the crushing weight of saving the kingdom amidst the chaos of war and a bitter conflict with Princess Michal. The queen’s search for a remedy for the king’s tormented mind leads to a mysterious musician, whose melody may be the only force strong enough to quiet the dangerous storm raging within king.

RADIO FREE AMERIKA (VOLUME 1)

Welcome to the Third World

DR. BARRON BELL

In this thrilling dystopian graphic novel, a pirate radio DJ sparks a resistance movement through coded hip-hop to reclaim a conquered America.

When the United States falls to foreign invasion, millions of Americans become refugees in their own country. But resistance is rising from an unexpected place. Broadcasting from a camp on the Canadian border, DJ Mose B sends out coded messages in the beats and scratches of hip-hop music over a station known as Radio Free Amerika.

As young rebels decode the signal, what begins as music becomes a movement, transforming ordinary citizens into freedom fighters. Soon unlikely heroes emerge, as those left behind rise up to save these United States and claim their God-given right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.

SLOW COOKER WINE and APRICOT BRAISED LAMB

1. Preheat oven to 350°F. Cook the lamb, carrots, and apricots in a skillet. Place the rest of the lamb flat all in a large dish cover with a high heat. Cook the lamb 3-4 minutes per side until browned (optional: for extra depth of flavor).
2. Layer into slow cooker for the recipe (see also on page 10) on the bottom. Lay meat back on top. Remove the carrots and apricots to the side. In the next layer add green beans, then add the rest of the lamb. Sprinkle green onions around the lamb and drizzle honey evenly over the top. Tuck bay leaves on top of the lamb.
3. Cover and cook on low for 7-8 hours, or until the lamb is fall-apart tender.
4. Remove top lamb. Transfer lamb to a serving platter, spoon out some of the apricot sauce, and garnish with fresh herbs. Do not use green onions with cooked and sautéed onions on top of your lamb.

NOTES
Lamb is a wonderful sight throughout Scripture. It was offered in sacrifice, served at feasts, and shared in fellowship. While some cooks are often hesitant to prepare it, slow cooking makes the cooking effortless. By using a slow cooker, you can set it, forget it, and have your lamb with perfectly tender. The result is a meal that is rich with flavor and goodness, reminding you of the Good Shepherd. —Tara McClary Reeves, and communities around the table.
